Have a fruitful meeting and a pleasant stay in the Land of Origins!

Addis: A Clean and Green Metropolis

Addis is undergoing a dramatic transformation befitting its stature. Sustainable infrastructure projects are underway throughout the city, including the creation of green spaces and parks and redevelopment of slums.

The corridor project is transforming the city's road network and expanding green areas to ensure it is a walkable city. Thanks to the project, the city now boasts enhanced infrastructure and facilities, boosting its appeal for residents and visitors.

Clean.
Green.
Vibrant.

A Rising Conference Hub

Over the years, Addis has emerged as a leading conference tourism hub in Africa, with a surge in the number of international and continental conferences and exhibitions it hosts.

Recent infrastructural developments have further enhanced the city's appeal to regional and international organizations and event organizers. As the home base of Ethiopian Airlines, Addis also boasts robust air connectivity. Add to this diverse hotel options and world-class convention centers and you have an ideal conference tourism destination.

Addis International Convention Center

Addis International Convention Center (AICC) is one of the newest conference facilities in the city. The venue features state-of-the-art amenities including meeting halls, exhibition spaces, accommodations, restaurants and more.

Adwa Victory Memorial Hall

Beyond honoring the Victory of Adwa and Ethiopian patriots, the modern edifice of the Adwa Victory Memorial also serves as a venue for major conferences and exhibitions. The building complex comprises multiple facilities, including assembly halls.

The main meeting hall has a capacity to host up to 2,500 conference participants at a time. Equipped with state-of-the-art sound and display systems, the hall is designed to provide an ideal meeting experience for participants.

Ethiopian Skylight Hotel

The modern meeting venues of Ethiopian Skylight Hotel add to the existing conference and exhibition facilities in Addis. The hotel's grand ballroom accommodates 2,000 people with a seating setup and 4,000 people with a cocktail setup at a time.

These are just some of the latest conference facilities in Addis. The city also boasts African Union's conference halls, UN-ECA's Africa Hall, as well as similar spaces in top hotel brands.

Taste of Ethiopia

As a land of rich cultural diversity, Ethiopia offers a culinary adventure like no other. Its vast array of dishes caters to various dietary needs with delicious stews—often meat-based, but with plenty of vegetarian options. Ethiopia truly provides a fusion of flavors that satisfies all taste buds.

While injera – a unique Ethiopian flatbread – is a staple in many households, dairy and meat products feature more prominently in the diets of nomadic and semi-nomadic communities. The cuisine of the southern parts of Ethiopia revolves around the Enset (false banana) plant, a versatile ingredient that serves as the base for numerous dishes.

Spiced. Flavorful. Lip-smacking.

Coffee Experience

As the birthplace of coffee, Ethiopia offers a unique opportunity to savor the perfect cup. Exploring some of the top coffee spots in Addis Ababa is a must for any visitor seeking an authentic Ethiopian coffee experience.
